Firefox

If you are using Firefox, here's how you may access the browser permissions: How do I open permissions manager?

If you have your settings set to "Always ask", you should see the following dialogue box, which will allow you to edit settings:

Microsoft Edge

To access your browser camera permissions:

- 1. Go to the website that wants to use your microphone and/or camera.
- 2. If a dialog box appears asking if you want to give the website permission to use your camera or microphone, select Allow once or Always allow, or close the dialog box to block access.
